Statement by MacArthur is Viewed as An Appeal For More Unified Direction of the War

SAVOWS POLITICS

BY JOHN H. WIGGINS

Washington, Oct. 29.—(P)—Counting protests against a divided command in the South Pacific appeared headed today for climactic action by what was regarded as some quarters as an appeal from Gen. Douglas MacArthur for unified direction over the entire unattacked area.

Answering a newspaper report attributing the two separate commands in the Pacific chiefly to political Washington, MacArthur declared that any contrary suggestion "must be regarded as utterly amiable gestures of good-will."

Too Much Censorship Denounced

New York, Oct. 29.—(P)—Bryon Price, director of censorship, says that "unless ample war news is given out by the government, our voluntary undertaking with the press and radio will collapse."

Price declared last night at a New York Times forum that "if the curtain is drawn too tightly, if official secrecy leads to widespread distrust and apprehension among the people, I doubt seriously whether newspapers and broadcasters will be so willing to cooperate in bottling up the news which always comes to them through their own outside sources."

Director Elmer Davis of the office of War Information told the audience, which included government and news executives, that all

Technician On Stand In Treason Trial

Chicago, Oct. 29.—(P)—An FBI laboratory technician described to a jury in a treason case today the implements of destruction brought to the United States by Nazi saboteurs, six of whom died in the electric chair for their scheme.

D. J. Parsons, special FBI agent, identified fuses, detonator blocks, lighters, electric matches and a time clock and explained their operation to the nine women and three men in the jury box.

He was a witness at the trial of the parents of Herbert Haupt, executed saboteur, Haupt's uncle and aunt and a couple who were friends of the Haupt family. The three men and three women are accused of treason through aiding and assisting young Haupt.

The saboteurs' supplies were found buried in beach sand near Jacksonville, Fla., where they were hidden by Haupt and three others after landing from a German submarine.

BY WALTER CLAUSEN

Pearl Harbor, Oct. 29.—(P)—A showdown in the southwestern Pacific between American and Japanese forces appears to be at hand.

On Guadalcanal Island in the Solomons, American marines and army troops are hemmed in on a small strip of land six miles long and three miles deep, with Japanese forces in overwhelming numbers on three sides and the enemy

Highway To Alaska Open Stimson Says

Washington, Oct. 29.—(P)—The entire Alaskan highway is now open to traffic, Secretary of War Stimson announced today, weeks ahead of schedule.

Motor trucks started this week moving supplies and equipment to the garrisons in the North Pacific outpost, using the entire 1,671 miles of the roadway, the secretary told his press conference.

"Thousands of trucks will operate over the route all winter, carrying soldiers and supplies to Alaska," Stimson said. "Plans are under way to bring loads of strategic materials on their return."

The formal opening has been advanced tentatively to November 15, instead of December 1. Ceremonies are planned for a point on the Alaskan-Canadian border.

Stimson also announced: A second and larger training school for the WAACs will be opened in December at Daytona Beach, Fla. Hotels and apartments will be taken over by the army will provide facilities for

AXIS ATTACKS BEATEN OFF BY BRITISH

Cairo Reports Air Assaults Being Continued on Enemy Supply Lines and Bases

CRETE AIRDROME FIRED

BY DON WHITEHEAD

Cairo, Oct. 29.—(P)—United States fighter pilots have added four more Messerschmitts to their steeply rising toll of downed enemy planes in continuation of the punishing air offensive which supports the British Eighth Army's thrust against Marshal Rommel's desert lines, official experts said today.

American and British airmen apparently were sharing three missions to wear down the Axis strength already in North Africa, to keep the enemy from getting reinforcements across the Mediterranean and to back the British land forces grinding into the Axis' Alamein line fortifications.

While air attacks smashed at enemy supply lines and bases even across the Mediterranean to Crete, British headquarters announced that the land forces had beaten off a counter-attack in the desert and inflicted further losses on the Axis in a series of minor tank engagements yesterday.

United States medium bombers struck again behind Rommel's line, scoring direct hits on camps and land convoys and starting many fires. Although many German fighters were seen in the battle area, the communiqué said, the bombers were not attacked.

The British communiqué on the land offensive gave no further details beyond the statement that "fighting continues."

The Axis air force was said to have remained on the defensive throughout yesterday as Allied

Adopt Plans Of Evacuation In The State

Harrisburg, Oct. 29.—(P)—County representatives in the new Pennsylvania Evacuation Authority returned to their homes today to prepare plans for depopulating target areas in the event of enemy action.

Basic evacuation methods were outlined yesterday at the authority's first session. G. Albert Stewart, authority director and secretary of forests and waters, said the Red Cross and various state departments were given specific evacuation duties.

He emphasized that evacuation would be undertaken "only as a last resort and under conditions involving heavy and repeated bombing or other enemy action."

The Red Cross was given the job of feeding, clothing, housing and supplying medical care for evacuees until they reach reception centers. At centers, the task will be taken over by the department of public assistance administering federal funds.

Traffic will be controlled by the state motor police, traffic routes will be outlined by state highways department and advice on children's educational problems will be given by the department of public instruction.

No Trace Of Rickenbacker

Washington, Oct. 29.—(P)—Secretary of War Stimson reported today that the war department was still without word from the search in the Pacific for Captain Eddie Rickenbacker, but said he retained hope nevertheless that the World War flying ace would be rescued.

"I can't help clinging to hope that he will still turn up," Stimson told reporters. "You know he is an exception to cut and dried rules."

The war secretary noted that when Rickenbacker's plane disappeared south of Hawaii more than a week ago, the World War ace was on his way to make a survey of army forces in the southwest Pacific similar to the study he had just made in Great Britain.

"Rickenbacker, Stimson said, 'stands high in the list of heroes of the last war and is one of the architects of victory in this.'"

British Marine Wins Dunking Championship

Philadelphia, Oct. 29.—(P)—A Royal Marine from Bristol, England, won the dunking championship of the Stage Door canteen last night, and left sharp-sharp-slurping in its wake nine Americans who until then had thought of the doughnut as an exclusively American institution.

The Britisher, Stanley Amesbury, absorbed three luscious doughnuts in 16 1/5 seconds to the Howard Bennett of Parsons, W. Va., who competed from the Washington canteen, and to defeat a team in New York City with coffee to spare.

The contest was conducted by telephone. Five service men and five hostesses took part in each city. Most of the contestants were American doughboys.

Opposition To Mobilization Of Manpower

Administration Reported To Have Decided To Sidetrack Proposal

IS OPPOSED BY LABOR

BY JACK BELL

Washington, Oct. 29.—(P)—The administration was reported reliably today to have decided to sidetrack indefinitely proposals for the compulsory mobilization of manpower.

Congressional leaders, who had expected shortly after next Tuesday's elections to receive a pattern from which legislation could be cut to fit the nation's workers into the wartime production machine, were said to have been informed that no White House recommendation will be forthcoming for some time.

In the absence of such a recommendation, sponsors conceded privately it would be next to impossible to obtain action on a half dozen or more manpower bills pending before congressional committees.

However, Senator Hill (D-Ala.) author of a bill that would give President Roosevelt broad authority to say where a man or woman should work, told reporters he would press for speedy action by the senate military committee on his and several other measures.

Archbishop Scores Treatment of Jews

London, Oct. 29.—(P)—The archbishop of Canterbury urged the public today to face the fact of monstrous evil in Europe—"such as an eruption of evil as the world has not seen for centuries."

Speaking at Albert Hall before a meeting called to protest against Nazi treatment of Jews, the archbishop, Dr. William Temple, declared that what was happening on the continent was "so horrible that the imagination refuses to picture it."

Dr. Temple declared there was every reason to fear that a large proportion of Jews "from two years old and upwards" being deported from France were destined for the ghastly ghetto in eastern Galicia (Poland) where thousands of Jews already have perished.

"It is hard to resist the conclusion," he said, "that there is a settled purpose to exterminate the Jewish people if it can be done."

NAZI TACTICS IN CAUCASUS ARE SHIFTED

Mountain Resort of 13,000 Population Claimed Taken By Hitler in Action In New Sector

SKIRMISHES IN SNOW

By the Associated Press

Adolf Hitler's Caucasian armies, in a sudden shift to a new sector, were reported attacking heavily with troops, tanks, artillery and planes against Soviet defenses on the Nalchik Plateau, 50 miles southeast of the old Moscow battle sector.

A Berlin broadcast said the Germans had already captured Nalchik, a mountain resort of 13,000 population on the northern slope of the Caucasus chain, only 60 miles from the important Georgian military highway to Tiflis.

A Nazi communiqué said German and Rumanian mountain troops "stormed the strongly fortified and stubbornly defended town of Nalchik," but did not claim its capture.

"Enemy forces bottled up north-east of Nalchik were wiped out or taken prisoner," the German command said, claiming the "annihilation" of several Red army divisions in a four-day battle.

Hitler's headquarters said the German siege armies at Stalingrad beat off several Russian counterattacks and then "gained more ground in a workers' settlement and industrial center" in the city's northern suburb.

Red Star said tank-led German troops attacked ten times, changing into a gap between two factories, and were finally stalled by a murderous crossfire of machine-guns after losing five battalions killed or wounded.

Soviet dispatches acknowledged that the Germans were gaining in their new drive down the land bridge to the middle east after they had been blocked in the Moxdok sector and thrown back in the battle for Tuapse, on the Black Sea coast, in the northwest Caucasus.

Fighting in primeval, snow-clad forests and on slopes threatened by avalanches, German and Russian ski troops met in sharp skirmishes.

Furlough For Selectees Cut

Washington, Oct. 29.—(P)—The inactive status period granted newly-inducted draftees before they begin military service was ordered cut by the war department today, effective November 1.

"This step is a logical consequence of the recent deferment of agricultural workers, requested as a matter of national necessity by the war manpower commission," Secretary of War Stimson said in a statement.

"These deferments in November make it necessary for us to draw upon the men on inactive status, in order that we may receive the number of men that the army must have. Otherwise the war manpower commission's action would result in serious shortages next month."

"We were faced with a choice between reducing the preliminary furlough period or deviating from the program of full speed ahead in the war effort. I believe that the men concerned will approve of the alternative we chose."

Hard Task Ahead For "Y" Workers

Today and tomorrow are heavy days for the workers in the Y. M. C. A. Call to Membership campaign, for to make Friday night's supper-meeting a Victory dinner 303 memberships must be secured in these closing hours. At the report meeting last night, the total to date was raised to 297 new and renewal members by a report of 168 workers.

W. Howard Alexander, the General of the organization, presided last evening, and Rev. E. Pinkney Wroth, pastor of Trinity Memorial Church, offered the invocation. The attendance of workers was very good with three teams winning honors for perfect attendance: Company No. 6, captained by John Reddick; Company No. 2, captained by C. C. Winans, and Company No. 11, of which Charles Koebly is Captain.

In last night's report Company No. 2 stood out in front for this report as well for the campaign to date. Led by C. C. Winans, this hustling group have accumulated a total of 3885 points, 1955 of which came in last night. Winans' closest rival is No. 7, captained by Ray Ledebur, with a total of 2450 points to date. Two other teams are tie for third position: No. 1, A. H. Templeton, Capt., and No. 8, with H. T. Flowers as captain.

The greatest hurdle the "Y" campaigners have to jump is the loss of renewals due to members having gone or about to go into the armed forces of the country. Almost certain renewals of over a hundred young men have been lost to the war services. Were these in the counting as in normal years, the total figure would look much more encouraging. However, the "Y" officials and campaign workers are still hoping to make up much of this loss through the cooperation of citizens who recognize the double importance of their getting on the "Y" membership roster this year.

From now on to the finish the workers have "open territory". They are not required to stick to prospect cards, but may approach anyone whom they feel may be a prospective member. The workers are out for 600 members and haven't given up hope of getting them yet. Men or boys who want to be counted in but who have not been solicited may be certain they are not missed by "phoning" or dropping in at the "Y" office.

Public Asked To Cut Down Use of Phones

The number of telephone calls rose considerably above normal immediately after the "all clear" following the air raid warning test on Monday night, A. M. Gibson, Chairman of the County Defense Council, stated today.

"The Defense Council repeats its request that the public make no telephone calls during an air raid warning or for some time afterwards," Mr. Gibson said.

"Any air raid warning could signal an enemy raid, and all of us should train ourselves accordingly. If the enemy ever does strike, the telephone system will be needed urgently even after the attacking planes leave this territory."

"The 'all clear' would not mean that all is well. There would be fires to fight, injured persons to aid, trapped persons to liberate. It would be a period of intensive activity and the telephone system would be needed to call, dispatch and coordinate every agency needed in the emergency."

"For ten minutes after the public alarm," Mr. Gibson said, "the volume of telephone traffic was 175% above normal, while for one-half hour after the 'all clear' traffic rose to 170% above normal."

The Civilian Defense organization found by experience that it was necessary to reduce the number of Civil Defense Calls in warning Air Raid Wardens, Auxiliary Police, Staff, etc. This has been done by a reduction of 400% in the number of scheduled calls made in the warning system.

For this reason, the Defense Council urgently requests the cooperation of the general public in this matter.

There were 23 oil-producing states in the Union in 1940, as compared with only 17 in 1917.

The word "Easter" is derived from the name of the Saxon goddess Eastre, whose festival was in April.

AMERICA'S WAR MANPOWER

WOMAN POWER

To meet the growing manpower requirements in the coming year, non-war industry must give some five million employees to war work and the armed services. An additional 3,600,000 persons not now working or not classified as unemployed will enter war work or service to swell the manpower figure to 62,300,000. Chart shows the manpower picture today and as it will be a year from now. Figures for women workers, many of whom will go from civilian to war work, are included in top chart.

Navy Lauded In Addresses To Kiwanians

The dining room suitably decorated for the occasion, yesterday at the Carver Hotel, the Kiwanis Club noon luncheon meeting featured Navy Day for the United States Navy. Commander Z. M. de Carvalho, of the Brazilian Navy, member of the Kiwanis Club, termed the U. S. Navy our first line of progress in his address of welcome to the members and Navy guests at the meeting. United States Navy representatives attending the session were: Miss June Defrees of the new Navy WAVES organization, WAVES Chief Petty Officer White, Ensign William Yeager, and Seaman Bloom Jr.

Miss Defrees talked of her experience in becoming a member of the Navy WAVES and stated the qualifications and purpose of the organization. Ensign Yeager briefly made clear the wonderful difference in our Navy's operation during the last World War and the present war. Chief Petty Officer White who is responsible for Navy recruiting in this district, very ably talked about Navy Day in peace time and concluded his discourse by listing the qualifications for the various branches of the Navy service today.

Another distinguished guest at yesterday's meeting was former Kiwanis Lieutenant governor for Penna. District of Meadville. Dr. J. R. Elliott, chairman of the Saturday Evening Boys club committee, reported progress in recruiting underprivileged boys for this year's SEE club. Kiwanians Dr. Thomas Colley, with the cooperation of Rev. J. A. Davidson, Rev. H. Knappenberger and Major Walter Daniels of the Salvation Army are interviewing the prospects aiming toward getting the most worthy candidates for this splendid plan whereby the YMCA and Warren Kiwanis Club cooperate to help Warren boys between the ages of 11 and 14 years.

Next weeks program will present Warren Fire Chief Doug E. Kropp, member of the club, who will discuss the problem of consumer storage of oil and gasoline together with other topics of fire prevention and instruction.

Survey Made By Director Of Education

Dr. Lee J. Gable, of Philadelphia, director of leadership education of the Pennsylvania State Council of Christian Education, spent Wednesday in Warren conferring with church leaders. During the afternoon, Dr. Gable surveyed the work of the Week Day Religious Education School and the Warren Leadership Training Institute with Dr. J. A. Davidson, who is dean of both the weekday school and the community Leadership training School, and chairman of the committee on Christian education of the Warren County Ministerial Association.

In the evening, Dr. Gable met with a group of ministers and laymen representing a number of local churches, at which Ralph E. Sires, president of the Warren County Council of Christian Education, presided. This conference concerned the proposed community-wide promotion of the United Christian Education Advance which has been officially adopted by 40 denominations and 30 state and provincial councils of Christian education, headed by a joint international committee represented by all members of these groups. In Pennsylvania the denominational groups are promoting the advance vigorously both individually and through the State Council. Dr. Gable paid a high tribute to the accomplishments in Warren with the weekday religious education schools, their high caliber of teaching staff and council staff. He said that the percentage of enrollment of 87% of the junior high and high school pupils was among the highest percentages in the state of Pennsylvania. He complimented Dr. Davidson and the committee responsible for the fine community leadership training now in progress, commenting upon the high standard of curriculum and leadership.

Dr. Gable is making a brief swing through northwestern Pennsylvania, after which he will return to Philadelphia.

TURN IN YOUR TIRES

As gasoline rationing becomes effective throughout the nation in November, the government is making a drive to acquire all tires in excess of five per automobile, reminds Burton Heath, in an editorial written for NEA and the Times-Mirror.

The excess tires are to be paid for, put into a national stockpile and resold under strict rationing to those who need them for war use.

This is one of several methods by which, until the huge synthetic program gets rolling, it is hoped to keep automobiles running to move supplies, carry on essential services, and transport war workers between homes and factories.

When automobile owners register for rationing books in states off the eastern seaboard they will be required to give Rationing Boards the serial numbers of the five tires they are keeping, and to certify that they have no more than five tires.

In the eastern states where rationing already is in effect motorists will be supplied with forms on which, not later than Nov. 22, they must report the serial numbers of their tires, and notify the government that they have only five in their possession and ownership.

Motorists are asked to keep their best five tires, and sell the others. The way has been made easy. All that is necessary is to telephone to the nearest Railway Express Agency and say: "I have some tires for Uncle Sam. Come and get them."

The Agency will pick them up and take them to a government warehouse at government expense. There they will be inspected and appraised according to a table, by size, by tread thickness and by need for repair. The owner can have either a check or war bonds or stamps in payment.

Theoretically the sale is voluntary. No motorist need fear that a policeman or a United States marshal will bring a warrant and seize his tires if he chooses not to sell.

But of course there is the compulsion of tit for tat. If any diehard decides not to co-operate for the good of his nation at war, the OPA will save his rubber for him by withdrawing his gasoline ration book.

We do not think that this compulsion will need to be used. The American public has shown a tremendous willingness to do anything specific for which it is given a good reason. The need to assure tires with which to get war workers to and from their jobs is a good enough reason for anybody.

We expect that the government will get as full co-operation in this as in the scrap campaign.

PLAN TO VOTE

There's plenty of food for thought in a study of the editorial cartoon appearing at the top of the page to the right of this column today.

Next Tuesday voters will be called upon to go to the polls and elect candidates to several very important state and district offices. Despite the near approach of the date there does not seem to be any great interest being taken in the election, at least so far as the people of Warren county are concerned. As a matter of fact one hears the election discussed to a very little extent, excepting among those political leaders and workers who are ever alert to the importance of exercising the right of franchise.

The candidates are working hard these last few days, but their efforts do not seem to result in the stirring up of any appreciable interest.

This is a matter of serious import. At this particular time the United States is engaged in a great war, and one of the things fought for is the right to vote and give expressions to opinions. Yet we still have this privilege but it is apparent it is not valued as it should be by a large number of people.

It is not too late for Warren county voters to give serious consideration to the forthcoming election and to the merits and qualifications of the candidates seeking various offices.

Don't be like the character in the cartoon. Plan to vote Tuesday!

The Y. M. C. A. campaign appears to be lagging a little but we have confidence that the workers will put it over.

Nine weeks until New Year's Eve!

While Millions Die for the Right to Vote

Washington In Wartime

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON — Well, folks, we've all been wrong. I mean about the 77th Congress, Second Session.

That's no name for a race horse, but 77th Congress, Second Session, was running true to form until it got into the home stretch—the pre-election stretch. Since then, Old 77 has been running like a son of Man-o-War, with Whirlaway and Alab as godfathers.

Nobody thought it could happen here in Washington, but it has. With the November elections only a photo-flash away, there probably are more Senators and House members in the Capitol than any time since "national defense" was first mentioned.

Not only that, but Congress is taking those controversial hurdles like the man in the barrel took Niagara. A few months ago it didn't take much of a canvass to predict that anti-inflation, the 18-19-year-old draft, taxes and several other things would get no consideration until after the elections.

THERE were intimations in pretty high places that Congress wouldn't even be consistently in session until the votes were counted. The boys just had to attend the hustings. It was explained, No Congress ever had violated that political rule—not in World War I or even in the Civil War when, on still nights, you could stand on Constitution avenue and hear the Rebel yell echo from the hills of Virginia.

Yet when the vote on the 18-19 draft was tallied in the House the other day, a scant two weeks before election, there were 361 members on the floor. Only in the case of the declarations of war have there been more members present in recent sessions.

Both House and Senate have been tossing a political dynamite around as if there were nothing to it. The wage and farm price control act has become a law and is in operation. True, there was some haggling and the law, as passed, was called "a compromise measure," but it was mostly a matter of saving face.

The tax measure had been knocking around for months, but the suddenness with which it came to a vote took the wind out of a lot of Congressional observers.

THERE is, of course, a reason for all this and it's one that I've talked about before. Congress is the mirror of America. Let them know what the score has to be and they'll come through with that tally. Early in the war, it became apparent that a No. 1 order from home was: Stay on the job. It took a while for some members to understand this. They had been taught differently. But by the time a few House members and Senators had been eliminated without even leaving Washington, it began to sink through.

There already have been some changes made that will be apparent in the 78th Congress. There'll be others when all the votes are in. But it isn't so much a matter of party now as it is of getting the job done as well and as quickly as possible.

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—I've been hearing such a raft of stories about Army inductions and medical examinations that I can't think of a better way to start today's communique than by relaying a few. It's said they are old stories, revived in every war, but if that's true, you wouldn't have heard them for 25 years.

One told by Leonard Lyons of the New York Post concerns an armless man. Much to his surprise, the armless man was accepted after his physical examination. Explained the Army doctor: "We've got a blind man filling gasoline tanks, and you can tell him when to quit."

Ish Kabbille of Key Kyser's band says: "The way they examine you now, one doctor looks into your left ear and another doctor looks into your right ear, and if they can't see each other, you're in."

Ed Gardiner: "Archie" of "Duffy's Tavern": "If they feel of you and you're warm, you're in."

Eddie Jaffe, self-styled ugliest press agent on Broadway: "When I got rejected I asked the doctor if it was because of my eyes. He said: 'No, not exactly, but next time you're examined, you'd better bring around a Seeing Eye dog that hasn't got flat feet.'"

THERE'S only one kind of a Marine, and that's a fighting Marine. Sgt. Woodrow Sporn is one, and Sgt. Murray Lewis is another. It was through Sergeant Lewis I learned that Sergeant Sporn is the author of a new ballad called "He's A Marine." Now

Sergeant Lewis, before he put on a uniform last Spring, was tub-thumper for the Stork Club, and launched the deb-of-the-year car of Miss Oona O'Neill, so I was used to being tipped off to miscellaneous gems of information by the gentleman.

Which brings us to Sergeant Sporn, a slender, serious Brooklyn boy who was educated at Johns Hopkins, the University of Virginia and Columbia University in order to become one of our more successful writers of soap operas. With the Marine Corps' 167th anniversary coming up Nov. 10, Sergeant Sporn got to thinking about how few Marine songs there are. He never had written a song in his life, but he went to work on one anyway.

SERGEANT Sporn got the lyric done, but was stumped for a tune. He appealed to Mitchell W. Post and Marion Barry of Tin Pan Alley, and they turned out a tune. Vaughn Monroe has introduced the ballad, recordings have been made and what happens to "He's A Marine" on and after Nov. 10 is in the laps of the juke boxes.

As I said, there is only one classification of Marines. Sergeants Sporn and Lewis signed up as battle correspondents. They'd like to be in the Solomons, doing their fighting by day and war correspondence by night. But they were assigned unexpectedly to press work in New York, and were somewhat nonplussed. The point I've been building up to—you should know that the song's profits go to Navy relief, and that the Marine Corps has been getting a good press lately—is that Sergeants Sporn and Lewis, a couple of fighting Marines seen their duty and they done it.

The human body is susceptible to 1600 separate diseases.

What Republicans Say About Republicans

Frank F. Truscott, Philadelphia, Republican Congressional candidate, May 15, 1942, said:

"General Edward Martin, a professional soldier, has no place in the mud and mire of a Pew-Grundy political campaign. At the time when the Nation needs the best services of all its general officers, the Pew-Grundy forces show shameful disrespect of the Army uniform when they plaster signboards throughout the State with a military picture of a candidate who asked to be relieved of his Army command in time of war so that he could come home and run for political office."

Warren Concert Association to Present Young American Singer, Polyna Stoska, Mon. Night

For its first program attraction of the current season, the Warren Concert Association has chosen Polyna Stoska, a young soprano, who will sing to a Warren audience for the first time Monday evening, November 2. Concert time is 8:30 o'clock and the place is the Woman's Club auditorium.

Other concerts on the schedule for this year will be the return engagement of Isaac Stern, young American violinist, on December 3 and the world-famed Salzedo Ensemble on February 24. Details of their coming will be announced later.

Miss Stoska is a member of that increasing band of American-born singers who have added a feather to the cap of this country's music culture. Born in Worcester, Mass., of Lithuanian parents, Miss Stoska's background is an artistic one. Her father studied singing in Petrograd and her uncle played the violin and conducted an orchestra at the Imperial Russian Court. Her sister, a nun and superior of a convent, is a fine pianist and teacher of piano theory.

Polyna herself studied violin and played that instrument in her high school orchestra. She received her early music training in Boston, having won a contest sponsored by the Massachusetts Federation of Music Clubs. At 15, she won a junior contest in voice which entitled her to a scholarship to study at the Juillard Graduate School under Marcella Sembrich. After the death of the great singer, Miss Stoska continued her preparatory studies in New York.

In 1935, she represented the American Lithuanian Singers at the World Congress in Lithuania and, while on the continent, made her operatic debut in Berlin. While in Europe, she distinguished herself in the triple role of recitalist, opera and radio star.

Returning to America, she scored a direct hit and won such tributes from the press as "the young soprano seems to have all the qualities of greatness" and "her recital is one of those which one can laud joyfully and hope for a return engagement".

Chopin Selections And Dance Numbers For President's Day

After welcoming members of the Philomel Club for the annual President's Day on Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Allie Russell presented a very pleasing program of Chopin music and dance selections.

She opened the program with the Polonaise No. 53 in A flat, after which she presented Noel French in a charmingly costumed Spanish dance for which Miss Evelyn Samuelson played accompaniment.

For her second appearance, Mrs. Russell played the F sharp major Nocturne and Etude No. 2, Opus 25. Little Diann French was assisted by her mother in a pretty waltz done in ballet costume and Mrs. Russell brought the program to a close with the rondo movement of the Premier Concerto No. 11. Miss Samuelson was at the second piano for the orchestral accompaniment to the composition.

At the close of this very enjoyable program, tea was served at a table done in patriotic motif, with white pompon centerpiece and red, white and blue candles. Hostesses were the club officers: Mrs. Harriet Wilkins, chairman; Mrs. Russell, Mrs. Walter Murphy, Mrs. W. M. Robertson, Miss Samuelson, Mrs. T. H. Conway, Miss Mary Blocher, Mrs. Louis Rapin, Mrs. N. D. Patterson, Mrs. Lyle N. Schuler, Mrs. E. E. Corbett and Miss Jean Robertson.

NORTH WARREN

North Warren, Oct. 29.—The Civic Club is very pleased with the posters that the Times-Mirror put out for their carnival. We doubt if there was a concern but what ran an ad. The Civic Club members have worked very hard to make this annual carnival a success and everybody will want to participate in the fun. The children's parade on Saturday, at 2:30 p. m., October 31st, will be worth seeing. We hope that all parents with children will see that they are in the parade in costume.

Mrs. Irene Atkins and son, Billy, Niagara Falls, have been spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Anders.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thayer, Main street, and Mrs. Grace Lincoll, South State street, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. Thayer's mother at Overd, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Coyle, Buffalo, N. Y., spent the weekend with the John Thayer family.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Bollinger and children, Buddy and Tony, were in Erie on Sunday with Mrs. Bollinger's father, William McCarthy.

Our "North Warren Gazette" is putting out a special Halloween number on Friday of this week, one page being especially devoted to the North Warren Carnival. Everyone will want one.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Anann, Buffalo, N. Y., spent the weekend at their home here. Leland Anann, their son, a first class pharmacist's mate, now on convoy duty in the Atlantic, was in the convoy going to Murmansk. It was attacked by German dive bombers on July 4th and Leland was decorated for bravery under fire.

We are glad to hear that Dr. Leonard Rosensweig and family, of the State Hospital, who have been ill with the flu are well again. We are sorry to hear that Jimmy Shafer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Shafer, Warren-Jamestown road, had the misfortune to fall out of a tree Sunday and broke his arm in two different places.

Merritt Young, Main street, spent his vacation with friends in Franklinville, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Landers and daughter, Virginia, had Sunday dinner at the Donald Bogart home, and also called on other friends. He was formerly principal in the North Warren school.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Siggins, Warren-Jamestown road, were unfortunate in that they had some pancake flour which poisoned them. They have recovered nicely now.

Sunday callers at the Fred Siggins home were Mrs. C. L. Orcutt, Kane; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Sanson, Bradford; and Miss Lena Osborne, Scranton.

Mrs. Nell Squires and daughter visited her husband at the State Hospital and spent a few days at the R. A. Hood home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ebel, Miss Barbara Ebel, Richard Ebel and Mrs. William Graham attended the funeral of Mr. Ebel's sister, Mrs. C. J. Anderson, at the Henderson and Lincoln Funeral Home, Jamestown, N. Y., on Saturday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ebel and Mr. and Mrs. Myron Jewell, Buchanan street, Warren, spent Sunday at the West Ridge Dahlia Farm, near Pittsburgh.

Mrs. Florence Jewell entertained her Bridge Club at a tureen dinner Sunday evening. The ladies were rather excited about leaving their husbands at home during the blackout. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Marjua Thayer and Mrs. Bella Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brooks entertained the "500 Club" Saturday evening with a 6:30 dinner party. Cards were played with Mike Connelly receiving the traveling prize.

The Tuesday Night Bridge Club met at the home of Mrs. Leonard Brooks for dessert bridge on October 27th. Mrs. Edith Ebel received the traveling prize.

George Cowden made a business trip to Baltimore on Wednesday.

Half G.M.'s War Effort for Flying Forces

WITH WARFARE climbing into the air, General Motors now has more than half its vast wartime manufacturing activity devoted to aviation, and this work will increase rapidly. More and more of G.M.'s energies and facilities are going into the manufacture of products for the sky fleets of the United Nations—products that range from tiny instrument parts, through liquid-cooled and air-cooled engines, to completed airplanes.

Top right: Mass production of powerful bomber engines in plants of the Buick and Chevrolet divisions is breaking records under steady acceleration of output. This is the final Buick "cleanup" line after test, tear-down and re-assembly, where the engines are readied for crating and shipment to a bomber plant. Above: Parts for these bomber nacelles are made at several Fisher Body plants. They are pictured in assembly at the Fisher Aircraft plant.

ONCE AGAIN WAR SWEEPS ACROSS THE SANDS OF NORTH AFRICA

This is the immediate theater of operations on the oft-contested Libya-Egypt desert front. British forces are striking toward Matruh, Tobruk and Benghazi with the twofold purpose of relieving the menace to Alexandria and Suez, and destroying Nazi General Rommel's army. Twice before—in 1941 and last winter—the British thrust across this arena to the El Agheila area, but were pushed back into Egypt both times by the axis.

Smith Home Will Receive Donations

Youngsville, Oct. 29—The Youth Fellowship plan a unique party for next Saturday evening in the Methodist church parlors at which the public is invited. Each one is asked to bring something that the young people can give to the Ruth Smith home in Sheffield. Canned fruit, jelly, soap, any staple goods or garden things that will keep will be greatly received.

All who desire may dress in costume. A program will furnish part of the entertainment with games in which every one, young and old may take part. Refreshments will be served to all.

YOUTH BUSY ON DEFENSE
The young people of our schools are also busy with defense work. They have gathered to date eight and a quarter tons of scrap. The boys in the High School have organized an auxiliary fireman's corps. The boys are now taking training in fighting forest fires so they would be prepared should the occasion arise.

Last Saturday the girls of the high school sold daisies for the blind fund that is being raised by the Lions Club. Supt. Paul Getts and school nurse, Mrs. Marion Robertson which to express their appreciation to the community for its generous response as $90 was raised in town. The Lions club in turn has helped with the Youngsville school children that needed special eye care. ### QUINTUPLETS relieve coughing of CHEST COLDS

POLITICAL FORUM

REPUBLICAN

Philadelphia, Oct. 29.—(P)—The Republican state committee quoted State Chairman Harvey M. Taylor today as saying that Auditor General F. Clair Ross "bought" his first state position, as deputy attorney general, with a "cash outlay of $1,500 which was described as a campaign contribution."

"This money was paid over to David L. Lawrence, then secretary of the commonwealth, as part of the Democratic political war chest which purportedly netted the 'little new deal' almost $2,000,000 in job making," Taylor was quoted in a statement issued by the committee.

Ross, the Democratic gubernatorial candidate, served as deputy attorney general during the administration of former Governor Earle. Ross denied Taylor's allegation.

Taylor also demanded that Ross "explain once and for all" the assertion of his Republican opponent, Adjutant General Edward Martin, that he "padded payrolls" x x x to bolster the Democratic campaign.

Wilkes-Barre, Oct. 29.—(P)—Criticizing the federal government for failure to establish war industries in the anthracite area, Adjutant General Edward Martin, Republican candidate for governor, last night promised to work if elected for permanent prosperity in the region.

Martin charged that the federal government disregarded a state survey of men and equipment in the anthracite area available for war production, forcing residents to find war work elsewhere.

"I will do all I can to straighten out this situation," he said, "so that labor and management and the whole hard coal territory can be placed on a sound basis."

REPUBLICAN PARTY

question concerning the navy's delay in announcing the loss of three they were mainly "fishing expeditions" since the action occurred at night

Allegheny National ForestWord has been received from Forest Supervisor R. F. Hemling-way relative to hunting on the Allegheny National Forest. With the exception of the cooperative State Game Refuges in Warrant 3185 of Jenks Township and Warrant 5217 of Kingsley Township, Forest County, the entire 468,000 acres of this Federal Forest are open to hunters. All that is required of the hunter, said Supervisor Hemlingway, is that he obey the hunting laws and safety rules of the State Game Commission and remember common sense practices with regard to fire.Reports from all sections indicate that rabbits and grouse are unusually plentiful. The reduction in the size of the deer herd appears to have had a marked influence in the reestablishment of the small game population on the Forest.The mast crop of acorns, nuts, and wild berries that persists on the stems is light this season, hesaid. Game will no doubt be concentrated where such foods are found.The task of hauling and planting some 200,000 trout and other game fish in Allegheny National Forest streams is nearly completed. Half of these have been native brook trout of close to legal size supplied by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service in cooperation with the U. S. Forest Service of the Dept. of Agriculture and the Pennsylvania Fish Commission.Hunters who desire the comfort of a camp fire must apply to the District Forest Ranger at Sheffield or Marienville, Pa., for a free campfire permit, he warned, until such time as a blanket of snow makes the escape of fires impossible.The protection of timber, fish and wildlife can best be served by keeping fire out of the woods and fields.Settlement Reached In Damage SuitSettlement was reached in court this morning in a suit filed by Mabel Marthas, Eugene and Mary Marthas, of Clarendon vs. Elmer C. Peterson. The suit was the result of an automobile accident in which Mabel Marthas, a child was struck by an automobile driven by Peterson. The child was given attention at the Warren General Hospital at the time of the accident. Through the settlement reached in court here today before Judge Allison Wade, the plaintiffs receive the sum of $500 from which they are to pay all bills incurred in the accident and subsequent treatment of the child.A settlement was also reached in the case of Elmer Richardson vs. Marie R. Richardson in which alimony and counsel fees were asked.An argument was heard in the case of Alta Lund vs. Anna and Harry Rogers. The litigation involved a property line and E. H.
Beshlin appeared for the defendant and Will C. Clark for the plaintiff. Briefs in the case will be filed.COFFEE RATIONING TO milk shortage which already exists will be heightened greatly, the State Milk Commission said, if Pennsylvanians in great numbers turn to milk as a substitute for rationed coffee.Chairman John M. McKee says milk consumption now is 10 percent above last year's while production is falling off because more cows are being butchered to alleviate the meat shortage and be-

Further Details Explained Regarding Rent Control LawIn producing a background on rent control, it should be pointed out that rent control is an absolutely vital part of the government's fight against high prices.
Rent alone takes fully a fourth from the pay envelope of the average worker. It's one of the most important prices that must be controlled.The rent program is first and foremost a war-time measure, its purpose is to help stabilize the American dollar. Remember, that dollar buys not only food and shelter, but the guns, planes, tanks, and other weapons needed to defeat the Axis. Think of that dollar as able to buy peace for the world—nothing must happen to impair its purchasing power. Rent Control is part of a vast, economic program, planned for the benefit of all, and as such it demands the support of every single citizen.Under the Maximum Rent Regulations it is recognized that certain adjustments may be warrant-ed in some exceptional cases. If a landlord was allowing an unusually low rent to a blood relative on the maximum rent date, he could ask for an adjustment. If the landlord, after the rent ceiling date, has made substantial changes in the house, by what the Regulation calls a major capital improvement, he may petition for an adjustment. This must be distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance.The Area Rent Director of Warren County, B. S. Knabenshue, assures landlords of the district that the Rent Office will be as conscientious as it can to get the facts, and make the best judgements humanly possible on the basis of the facts. However, the Regulations are the Rent Director's law and they must be abided by whenever they tell the staff what to do. Those responsible for drafting the Regulations for establishing the Maximum Rent Date in this area, had but one thought in mind—to be as "generally fair and equitable as possible."TIMES TOPICS*GOING TO CORRYA large delegation from Shef-

Conn And Pastor Ranked As Logical Contenders For Title Now Owed By Sergeant Louis

Washington, Oct. 29.—(P)—Corporal Billy Conn and Bob Pastor are the "logical contenders" for Sergeant Joe Louis' heavyweight championship crown, the National Boxing Association reported today in announcing that top-ranking fighters now in the armed forces shortly would be placed in a special "honorary class."

Abe J. Greene, NBA president, said that in December the association would announce plans for listing "duration champions and contenders."

These ratings, Greene declared, will be based on a policy of "freezing" for the duration the titles of men in the service. He added that such a system would prevent "injustices" to champions now in uniform and would prevent appropriation of boxing crowns by self-proclaimed champions or by dictum of any individual athletic commission.

The NBA ranked Pastor as the leading "out-of-the-service" heavyweight, ignoring both his recent defeats at the hands of Jimmy Bivins of Cleveland, and Bob's announcement three days ago that he was retiring from the ring and planned to enter some branch of the armed forces.

Melio Bettina was placed at the top by a group of five "outstanding boxers" in the heavyweight class, but the NBA noted that his army service probably would prevent any ring activity on his part "which leaves competition principally in the hands of Lee Savold and Tami Mauriello, who are booked to meet tomorrow night. Manuel Ortiz, whose victory over Lou Salica has been recognized by the NBA, was ranked the No. 1 bantamweight for the only change in title classifications in the new ratings.

Henry Armstrong, the old "perpetual motion" specialist, came back to gain the fourth slot among the NBA-ranked welterweights, coming behind Freddie Cochrane, Ray Robinson and Fritz Zivic. Armstrong whipped Zivic in San Francisco Monday night in the most significant step of an amazing comeback campaign.

THREE PITTSBURGH TEAMS AT HOME

Pittsburgh, Oct. 29.—(P)—All three of Pittsburgh's collegiate football teams play at home this weekend, Carnegie Tech bumping up against Pitt in a traditional game Saturday afternoon and unbeaten St. Vincent of Loretto tackling Duquesne here Saturday night.

The St. Vincent Bearcats have won five straight this season and are expected to provide plenty of competition for Duquesne which has lost two consecutive games after having won 16 in a row. Last year Duquesne barely managed to score a 7-0 win over St. Vincent.

Duke Coach Buff Donelli, concentrating on his kicking, announced that Halfback Maxie Kiebasa probably will do most of the punting against the Bearcats. Kiebasa has been named game captain.

New Talk Of Rickey Going With Dodgers

BY JUDSON BAILEY
New York, Oct. 29.—(P)—Branch Rickey was back in town today for the second time within a week and may sign as the new president of the Brooklyn Dodgers before he darts away again.

The latest visit of the vice president of the St. Louis Cardinals was surrounded in as much secrecy as was the case last week. He arrived yesterday unannounced, registered at a midtown hotel but didn't answer his telephone, and even his son's family said they were unaware of his presence here.

However, there was reason to believe he had come to conclude negotiations which have been going on ever since the World Series, when the board of directors of the Dodgers set out to find a successor to Larry MacPhail, who resigned to accept a lieutenant-colonelcy in the army.

When he was last here Rickey, although refusing to acknowledge that his presence had any connection with the Brooklyn vacancy, did say he hoped to "know something definite within the next week."

The fact that he returned seven days later, on the dot, was therefore accepted to mean that he knew something definite and there seemed to be no occasion for his making a trip here if the "definite" were negative.

MICHIGAN TIGHT
Ann Arbor, Oct. 29.—In four games—against Great Lakes, Michigan State, Iowa Cadets and Northwestern—Michigan surrendered a net total of only 252 yards on the ground while gaining 713 by rushing.

Madison, Oct. 29.—Wisconsin's wartime policy of providing football competition for as many as possible is on review on Saturday with the varsity, freshmen and B teams seeing action in stadia all over the middle west.

Sudden Climax

SHORTLY after midnight, Amy Bassett and Tom Morton came up. "How about getting Eddie and Jane and going for a short drive," Tom said. "I've got my car here."

Susan looked at Todd. "Let's," she said. "Later, they sat sipping cokes in Tony's, a popular campus hang-out. Most dates usually would up there. Amy nudged Susan. "Look who just came in," Susan looked and was startled. It was Phil Humphries. He had noticed them and was approaching, a smile on his face.

"Looks like he's had a couple of drinks," Tom muttered. "Genius or not, he's going to get in trouble if he doesn't slow down. He's already been on the carpet once. I understand."

Susan felt Todd stiffen beside her. "Phil," she said. "I thought you were in Chicago."

"Got back a day earlier than I had planned," he replied, nodding a general greeting to all. He gestured slightly with the early Sunday paper he held under his arm. "Say, Malone," he said in a jutting tone. "I read where Duke Malone, a big-time gambler, is getting out of the penitentiary on parole. He's not any relation of yours is he?"

Tom Morton laughed flatly. "Some joke — ha-ha," he said sourly. But Todd Malone's face had set. His lips were a straight line. "He wasn't, was he?" Phil continued lightly. "Of course not, I was just—"

Todd looked straight at Phil Humphries as he interrupted but his answer was for all. "I told my father," he said quietly but aggressively, "that I never would deny it if someone ever asked me that question. Yes, Humphries, Duke Malone is my father, and somehow I have a feeling you knew it all the time. Where I come from they kill snakes, Humphries. I'd better leave before I kill you."

The words poured from Todd's mouth in a soft rush. His face was slightly contorted as he rose. "Excuse me, please," he said and walked away swiftly.

Covering The Sports Front!

BY HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
New York, Oct. 29.—(P)—Having tried to apply common sense to football predictions for several weeks, and having fallen somewhat short of perfection, this dept. is inaugurating a new system this week: Duquesne vs. St. Vincent (Friday)—one of Duquesne's halfbacks is good. So is Duquesne—too good for St. Vincent.

Colgate vs. Holy Cross. We're always mistaking Colgate's Al Hanover for a rotting horse because of his name, but we understand he's a runner. Maybe Al will pace the Red Raiders to victory. Oklahoma vs. Iowa State. Word from the southwest is that the Sooners' prospect depend on whether Hamm is hot. Veteran sandwich eaters tell us cold Hamm is just as good. Anyway, we'll string along with Oklahoma whether Hamm is hot or roasted.

Pennsylvania vs. Army—The Penn is mightier than the sword. Texas Christian vs. Baylor—No selection. We can't tell which way the Frogs will jump.

ONE-MINUTE SPORTS PAGE. Local fight enthusiasts are talking about a return meeting here between Fritz Zivic and Henry Armstrong. Maybe they didn't see those pictures from San Francisco showing Henry's face looking like a Halloween pumpkin after he won from Fritz. Red Horner, who won the National Hockey League's had man title so often he was given permanent possession, will be a big league referee this season. Thought for Brooklyn: Branch Rickey always used to say that if he ever had direct control of a ball club, Burt Shotton would be his manager.

TODAY'S GUEST STAR. William McG. Keefe, New Orleans Times-Picayune: "Chancellor O. C. Canichael of Vanderbilt said that the students attending the university without a serious purpose should enlist in the armed forces before sundown. He probably was referring to those students who make up the football squad, because we notice his suggestion came right on the heels of that 33 to 0 pasting Mississippi State dished out."

BY ARNOLD DERLITZKI

Chicago, Oct. 29.—(P)—Collegiate football is streaking to new offensive heights this year on the backs of Missouri and Georgia.

Missouri, paced by Bob Steuber, the nation's leading scorer, has averaged 434 yards a game for six contests. Georgia, led by Frankie Sinkwich, has rolled along at a 431 clip in the same number of encounters.

The American football statistical bureau, in releasing today's figures said that it believed it had some imposing figures three years ago when Cornell, in six games averaged 409 yards before bumping into Dartmouth and Pennsylvania.

But today Missouri and Georgia not only are far ahead of that pace, but are being pushed by two other elevens. In five games, Tulsa has a 419 total offensive average and Ohio State, 414.

Missouri and Ohio State, incidentally, are the top running teams of the nation, Missouri having gained 2,023 of its 2,605 total yardage by rushing and Ohio State 1,646 of its 2,070.

Georgia, 13th in rushing, is making up its difference in passing where it continues to run third behind Columbia and Tulsa. Columbia has averaged 212 yards a game, Tulsa 209, and Georgia 154, with Maryland right behind at 152.

All around honors, however, go to little Tulso, undefeated in five games. In addition to being third in total offense and second in passing, the Golden Hurricanes are first in total defense (allowing opponents an average of 84 yards a game), first in pass defense (permitting 25 yards a game), third in punting and 11th in rushing.

Elkers Go Rough Shod In Warm-Up

If Coach Sherm Stanford took on Weedville for his charges to warm up on before they come to Warren Saturday they certainly did get into a fever heat. The Ridgway first team put on a little exhibition of running, line smashing, passing and other little things and then retired to the bench to let the second and third stringers have a little fun. Weedville didn't have a happy minute and Ridgway cantored home with one of those scores that look like the national debt.

And just for that the Warren High squad is also doing things. They are getting out a batch of their best luster with which to polish off these cocky Elk countians under the coaching of a Warren county man. From all indications it's just going to be too bad. The Warren Dragons are going to let out their very best roars, spit fire and do other things Dragonian. Because they just want to close the regular season in a burst of glory. However, the Yankees planned on taking St. Louis and perhaps the Elkers will get their antlers tangled up with the local expectations.

Who knows? Well just get out to Russell Field next Saturday and you too, can find out.

MURDER on the Campus

By JERRY BRONDFIELD

"We Kill Snakes"

DEFINITELY, it was an event at the Pi Gam house. Bill Gardner, the chapter president, made quite a ceremony of inspecting Todd as he finished dressing. He flicked an imaginary speck of dust off his dark brown sports jacket.

"Truly history-making," he murmured. "Tell me—and let us preserve for Pi Gam posterity—how Todd Malone broke down."

"Impulse," Todd grinned. "Bill turned to Eddie Luttrell. "Generations of Pi Gamers," he said solemnly, "shall blame many sins upon impulse from now on."

Todd picked up a shoe and made a threatening gesture and Bill ducked out of the room. Eddie laughed, and then immediately held the right side of his face. "Oooh, I forgot."

His right eye was puffed and purple and it hurt when he moved a muscle. "Your fault, too," he griped. "You weren't satisfied with 24 to 7; no—you had to make it 30 and look what it got me. Lord, I'll never forget that Michigan State tackle. He was the biggest man in the world."

"I'll lead you by the hand," Todd promised him. "Once we get to the Delta Sig house it's up to Jane."

Special Occasion
SUSAN relaxed up close to Todd's chest as they danced in the large dining room that had been cleared of tables. A seven-piece Negro orchestra was playing "Don't Sit Under The Apple Tree."

Todd danced effortlessly and smoothly. Susan glanced up at him. "For a guy who avoids these things like the plague you certainly know what to do with your feet."

"Correspondence course, and I practiced with a clothes dummy," he grinned. "I walked right into that one," she said. "Anyway, having a good time?"

"Sure am," he smiled down at her. It was a natural smile, lighting up his face in a way she had never seen before.

"That smile fits nicely; you ought to wear it more," she said. "I reserve it for special occasions."

"And this is one?" He nodded. "A double one." She drew back and ridged her eyebrows inquiringly. "What's the other one? Someone leave you a fortune?"

"Not quite, but just as good," he said. "Come on—let's have some punch before it's all gone." He got two cups from the colored waiter who was serving Yas-SUH, Mistah Malone, the lanky exclaiming delightedly. "You huah had yo' a day and ah won ve bucks because of it."

"Everybody's hero," Susan said over the rim of her cup. "But you know," she continued lightly, "I'm something of a hero here tonight too, in a minor sort of way."

"Tell me the gory details," he said.

"You mean," she said, "you haven't noticed the looks of envy when I'm getting?" Her tone grew menacing. "You don't realize, Mr. Malone, what a social triumph I've registered by bringing you here."

He laughed out loud and she as-

2. RUBBER

A modern army travels on rubber, lots of it, but every old hip boot or bit of garden hose around your house means a lot if it is reclaimed. There's enough rubber in 125 old tires for the needs of a Flying Fortress; enough in a bicycle tire and tube for 6 radio sets. Here are some figures: a light tank uses 48½ lbs., gun carriage 82 lbs., a battleship 165,000 lbs.

U. S. Forces Are

Inflicting Heavy

Losses On Enemy

eastward to menace other American positions.

While U. S. troops and planes battled savagely to hold Guadalcanal air base, superior enemy sea-borne forces were mobilizing at the approaches to American bases in the New Hebrides and Fiji islands, threatening vital Allied communications between the Hawaiian islands and Australia.

Dispatches from Pearl Harbor said it was the first time since the Philippines campaign that the Japanese had massed such superiority in power and declared there was no doubt it was an all-out attempt to destroy American footholds in the South Pacific.

On the New Guinea front, Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters reported that Australian troops continued to press the Japanese back toward their north coast invasion base in a drive across the Owen Stanley mountains.

As the whole South Seas campaign flamed toward a climax, Gen. MacArthur himself sounded an indirect appeal for a unified command over the embattled area.

At his headquarters in Australia, Gen. MacArthur declared that he had "no political ambitions whatsoever" and planned to retire to private life once more if he survived the war, and then he added significantly:

"I have noted the statement... that 'political Washington was largely responsible for the establishment of two separate commands in the Pacific, partly because of the conservative opposition which launched the MacArthur.' I started as a soldier and I shall finish as one," he said.

Command in South Pacific Is Under Fire

will dictated by friendship."

"I started as a soldier and I shall finish as one," he said. "The only hope and ambition I have in the world is for victory for our cause in the war."

This, topping louder and louder demands from Capitol Hill for better teamwork in the Pacific war theater, was interpreted by some sources here as at least an indirect appeal to eliminate any political considerations that might be hampering his direction of the war effort in that part of the world.

These sources pointed out that such a statement from a commanding officer in the field was highly unusual and was almost bound to provoke some decisive action.

The congressional protests became more vocal this week after Vice Admiral Robert H. Ghormley was replaced as commander of the Southern Pacific area embracing the Solomon Islands by Vice Admiral William H. Halsey.

There was no explanation for the change, but it was recalled that United States naval operations in that area had cost three cruisers, the aircraft carrier Wasp, five destroyers and four other ships.

Nichols said Lieutenant Wilson testified that he had encountered the liner's co-pilot, L. F. The meeting took place, the planes collided and the transport, an American airliner, crashed in flames.

A Tribute To Mrs. C. C. Johnson

Last Friday, October 23, as we stood beside the casket of Mrs. Johnson, we recalled it being just three short years, to the day, that her only daughter, Dr. Doris Johnson Fales, passed away.

Mrs. Johnson will be missed by so many for she had endeared herself to everyone who knew her. She was not a woman that just professed to be a good Christian, but she was all she professed to be and a lot more. She was a loyal friend, kind and true, a gifted nurse for those that needed help and had not the means to pay. She gave her time and strength, so gladly, for others until her own health failed several years ago.

So Mrs. Johnson, our friend and neighbor sleeps, and we know she is happy for she so often said, "I'll bet Doris has been looking for me for a long time. She can't come to me again but I can go to her."

While we all miss her kindly ways and pleasant smile, we know it's our loss and Heaven's gain.

Her memory will linger.

Thou' her days are spent.

She would wish no lofty monument, for no long procession passing, slow, as along the last road she'd go.

But she would love to know the friends, who were left, would grieve for her passing to the unknown west.

May she rest in peace and sleep well content with the love of her friends as her monument.
